Description

Pick n Pay is pleased to announce the availability of its UIF-Funded Learnership Programme for the year 2024/2025. This six-month initiative is designed for unemployed youth across the nation, providing them with the opportunity to gain valuable experience and training in a professional retail environment.

The learnership is SETA-accredited and consists of theoretical and practical components aimed at equipping participants with the necessary skills and knowledge to excel in the retail sector. Participants will receive a monthly stipend throughout the program.

Responsibilities

- Attend 10 days of theory-only sessions to build foundational knowledge.
- Engage in practical training within a store for the remaining duration of the learnership.
- Receive guidance and support from a dedicated in-store mentor.
- Participate in monitoring and verification procedures throughout the program.
- Undergo a final assessment and moderation process to evaluate competencies gained.

Qualifications

- Candidates must be under the age of 29.
- A Grade 12/Matric certificate is required.

Job Benefits

- Participants will receive a monthly stipend during the program.
- Gain valuable work experience and skills applicable to the retail industry.
- Benefit from mentorship and practical training in a professional setting.

How To Apply?

Interested candidates are encouraged to apply for the UIF-Funded Learnership Programme through Pick n Pay's official channels. Please note that completion of the program does not guarantee job placement.
